1. Get extra trade-in credit when you trade in an eligible iPhone and purchase a new eligible Apple device through June 16, 2025. Additional terms from Apple or Apple's trade-in partners may apply.

Trade-in values will vary based on the condition, year, and configuration of your eligible trade-in device. Not all devices are eligible for credit. You must be at least the age of majority to be eligible to trade in for credit or for an Apple Gift Card. Trade-in value may be applied toward qualifying new device purchase, or added to an Apple Gift Card. Actual value awarded is based on receipt of a qualifying device matching the description provided when estimate was made. Sales tax may be assessed on full value of a new device purchase. In-store trade-in requires presentation of a valid photo ID (local law may require saving this information). Offer may not be available in all stores, and may vary between in-store and online trade-in. Some stores may have additional requirements. Apple or its trade-in partners reserve the right to refuse, cancel, or limit quantity of any trade-in transaction for any reason. More details are available from Apple's trade-in partner for trade-in and recycling of eligible devices. Restrictions and limitations may apply.

2. Hearing Aid and Hearing Test: The Hearing Aid feature has received FDA authorization. The Hearing Test and Hearing Aid features are supported on AirPods Pro 2 with the latest firmware paired with a compatible iPhone or iPad with iOS 18 or iPadOS 18 and later and are intended for people 18 years old or older. The Hearing Aid feature is also supported on a compatible Mac with macOS Sonoma and later. It is intended for people with perceived mild to moderate hearing loss.

Hearing Protection: The Hearing Protection feature works with AirPods Pro 2 with the latest firmware when paired with a compatible iPhone, iPod, or Mac with iOS 18, iPadOS 18, or macOS Sonoma and later. Feature is only available in the U.S. and Canada. See support.apple.com/HT20950 for total attenuation and more information. The Hearing Protection feature is not suitable for protection against extremely loud impulse sounds, such as gunfire, fireworks, or jackhammers, or against sustained sounds louder than 110 dB.

To access and use all Apple Card features and products available only to Apple Card users, you must add Apple Card to Wallet on an iPhone or iPad that supports and has the latest version of iOS or iPadOS. Apple Card is subject to credit approval, available only for qualifying applicants in the United States, and issued by Goldman Sachs Bank USA, Salt Lake City Branch.

Apple Payments Services LLC, a subsidiary of Apple Inc., is a service provider of Goldman Sachs Bank USA for Apple Card and Savings accounts. Neither Apple Inc. nor Apple Payments Services LLC is a bank.

If you reside in the U.S. Territories, please call Goldman Sachs at 877-255-5923 with questions about Apple Card.

Learn more about how Apple Card applications are evaluated at support.apple.com/kb/HT209218.

Apple Intelligence is available in beta on all iPhone 16 models, iPhone 16 Pro, iPhone 16 Pro Max, iPad mini (17 Pro), and iPad and Mac models with M1 and later, with Siri and device language set to Chinese (Simplified), English (Australia, Canada, India, Ireland, New Zealand, Singapore, South Africa, UK, or U.S.), French, German, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese (Brazil), or Spanish, as part of an iOS 18, iPadOS 18, and macOS Sonoma software update, with more languages coming over the course of the year, including Vietnamese. Some features may not be available in all regions or languages.

A subscription is required for Apple Arcade, Apple Fitness+, Apple Music, and Apple TV+.

Features are subject to change. Some features, applications, and services may not be available in all regions or all languages.

What happened to Urvashi Rautela? What is this about?

To my global fans & supporters the Cannes Festival community, and champions of truth, I rise with unyielding strength against the cowardly lies of Diet Sabya, a faceless page that dares to falsely claim I blocked a staircase. Let the truth reign: my team secured full permission for a photoshoot on a designated staircase, as did others, in strict adherence to every rule of the prestigious Cannes Film Festival, which I honor with unwavering respect. Diet Sabya, a cheap imitation of Diet Prada, lacks even an ounce of originality, thriving only on venomous attacks against hardworking outsiders who dare to shine. Their baseless narratives target those, like me, who elevate India's pride on the global stage. I have blocked and reported this irrelevant entity, and I call on all to dismiss their envious slander. My charisma, forged through relentless dedication and international acclaim, remains untouchable. No one not Diet Sabya, nor their petty lies can dim the light of Urvashi Rautela, a force that leads and inspires. No matter how hard you troll me we will never pay you like others #paidtrolls
With unbreakable resolve,
Urvashi Rautela

The first UK Phantom on a test flight in 1968

From 1968 to 1992, the United Kingdom used the McDonnell Douglas F-4 Phantom II as one of its principal combat aircraft. The Phantom was procured to serve in both the Royal Navy's Fleet Air Arm and the Royal Air Force (RAF) in several different roles. Most Phantoms operated by the UK were built as a special batch containing a significant amount of British technology. Two variants were initially built: the F-4K was a carrier-based air-defence interceptor for the Fleet Air Arm, while the F-4M was initially used by the RAF for tactical strike and reconnaissance, before transitioning to an air defence role in the 1970s. In the mid-1980s, a third Phantom variant was obtained when fifteen former US Navy F-4J aircraft were purchased to augment the UK's air defences. Although the Fleet Air Arm ceased using the Phantom in 1978, the RAF retained it until 1992, when it was withdrawn as part of a series of post-Cold War defence cuts. (Full article...)

Anemone blanda, the Balkan anemone, Grecian windflower, or winter windflower, is a species of flowering plant in the family Ranunculaceae. The species is native to southeast Europe and the Middle East. It grows up to 10 to 15 centimetres (4 to 6 inches) tall and is valued for its daisy-like flowers, which appear in early spring, a time when little else is in flower. The flowers are found in various colors and are radially symmetrical, containing seven or more sepals and petals. This purple A. blanda flower was photographed in Bamberg, Germany.

Why Khan Academy works

Personalized learning

Students practice at their own pace, first filling in gaps in their understanding and then accelerating their learning.

Trusted content

Created by experts, Khan Academy's library of trusted, standards-aligned practice and lessons covers math K-12 through early college, grammar, science, history, SAT®, and more. It's all free for learners and teachers.

Tools to empower teachers

With Khan Academy, teachers can identify gaps in their students' understanding, tailor instruction, and meet the needs of every student.

“I’m finally able to truly differentiate my classroom. This has been priceless for my students’ engagement.”

UDAYA LAKSHMI PALAPALA / Middle school Coordinator / Hyderabad, Telangana

We empower teachers to support their entire classroom. 90% of US teachers who have used Khan Academy have found us effective.

Teachers, start here

LEARNERS AND STUDENTS

You can learn anything.

Build a deep, solid understanding in math, science, grammar, history, SAT®, and more.

Learners, start here

“When I was a child, I used to fear mathematics. But now, I am in love with mathematics because of Khan Academy.”

ANJALI
GURUGRAM, HARYANA

TOGETHER WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Every child deserves the chance to learn.

Across the globe, 617 million children are missing basic math and reading skills. We're a nonprofit delivering the education they need, and we need your help. You can change the course of a child's life.

Market Rundown: Stocks jump as Trump pauses EU tariffs

European markets have regained all the ground they lost when President Trump announced a 50% tariff on the European Union on Friday, after he paused that duty until July 9th. That's a tight deadline for trade talks, as Reuters' Elena Casas explains.

THE KURDISH WORKERS' PARTY, THE PPK — DESIGNATED A TERROR GROUP BY TURKIYE, THE US AND THE EU — PLANS TO DISBAND. THE ANNOUNCEMENT FOLLOWS A FEBRUARY 2025 CALL BY LEADER ABDULLAH OCALAN, IMPLORING MEMBERS TO LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS.

TURKIYE WELCOMED THE PLAN. THE QUESTION, PERHAPS, IS WHY NOW?

IN 1995, OCALAN CROWNED THE PPK WITH LEFTIST DIVISIVES, TO ADVOCATE FOR A KURDISH STATE. AMONG THEM, THE "LEGEND", BAKIR CANIZER, WHO WOULD LATER BE MYSTERIOUSLY ASSASSINATED.

Where Chicano meets Vietnamese

Mexican American culture finds a familia in Southeast Asia, where barbers and tattoo artists are creating a community with purpose

By Stephanie Yang | REPORTER FROM HO CHI MINH CITY

When Nguyen Phuoc Loc started dabbling in Chicano culture eight years ago, it was simply because he liked the way that the loose clothing offset his large head. Today, he considers himself Chicano through and through. The 30-year-old Vietnamese barber has never been to the United States. Yet he has filled his life and work with tributes to Mexican American culture.

Even his shaved head is covered in the Gothic black letters long popular in Chicano culture that spell out: Family, Loyalty, L.A. The ink on his crown — a large number 6 — signifies his status as the sixth member of a small but increasingly visible community: a looseband of barbers and tattoo artists who call themselves Viet Chicanos.

"In the beginning, I was just copying the older guys, their style and all," said Loc, 30. "But over time, I started to feel that it really fit who I am."

Data show deeper water losses

As reservoirs fall, the Colorado River Basin is also being emptied of groundwater at a rate called 'alarming.'

BY TAN JAMES

As the Colorado River's giant reservoirs have declined during the last two decades, even larger amounts of water have been pumped and drained from underground, according to new research based on data from NASA satellites.

Scientists at Arizona State University examined more than two decades of satellite measurements and found that since 2002 the quantity of groundwater depleted in the Colorado River Basin is comparable to the total capacity of Lake Mead, the nation's largest reservoir.

The researchers estimated that pumping from wells has drained about 34 cubic kilometers, or 28 million acre-feet, of groundwater in the watershed since 2002 — more than twice the amount of water that has been depleted from the river's reservoirs during that time.

King of the kazoos

"King of the kazoos," is not the most important story the Los Angeles Times has ever published, but it might just be the funniest. The late, great Al Martinez wrote about kazoo salesman Albert Broder several times over his career, but this 1986 column is a classic. The Times is republishing it as part of L.A. Can AI be trustworthy?

In a world where AI innovation is driven by a select few, we're risking monopolisation of this technology. Applying open-source concepts to AI could change that.

The platform

Hands-on learning

for <temporary variable> in <list of length 6>:
    print("Learning Loops!")

On the right, the main area has a title 'Ask the AI Learning Assistant' and a sub-section 'AI Learning Assistant'. A message box says 'What's wrong with my code?'. It shows the original faulty code:

six_steps = range(6)
for temp in range:
    print("Learning Loops!")

six_steps = range(6)
for temp in range(6):
    print("Learning Loops!")

The AI notes: 'This will correctly iterate over a sequence of six steps, printing "I learned I can do" six times.'

At the bottom, there are buttons for 'Run', 'Send a message', 'Help us improve', and 'Powered by OpenAI'.

"freeCodeCamp was the gateway to my career as a software developer. The well-structured curriculum took my coding knowledge from a total beginner level to a very confident level. It was everything I needed to land my first dev job at an amazing company."

Emma Bostian in Sweden

Software Engineer at Spotify

"I've always struggled with learning JavaScript. I've taken many courses but freeCodeCamp's course was JavaScript as well as data structures and algorithms on freeCodeCamp gave me the skills and confidence I needed to land my dream job as a software engineer at Spotify."

Frequently asked questions:

What exactly is freeCodeCamp?

freeCodeCamp is a community of people from all around the world who are learning to code together. We're a 501(c)(3) public charity.

How will freeCodeCamp help me learn to code?

You will learn to code by building dozens of projects, step-by-step, right in your browser, code editor, or mobile app.

You will also earn free verified certifications along the way.

Is freeCodeCamp really free?

Yes. Every aspect of freeCodeCamp is 100% free. The courses, the projects, and even the certifications.

Can freeCodeCamp help me get a job as a software developer?

Yes. Every year, thousands of people who join the freeCodeCamp community get their first software developer job.

What skills will I learn?

You will learn the skills most developers use on the job: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Python, Linux, Git, and SQL, and more. You'll also learn how to use powerful libraries for web development, mobile app development, data science, and artificial intelligence.

How long does it take to learn all this?

freeCodeCamp is self-paced. Realistically, it may take several years of practicing coding to learn these skills well enough to get a job as a software engineer. Don't quit school or your day job until you feel ready.

How do I get started?

If you're a beginner, you should start at the beginning of the freeCodeCamp core curriculum. If you're more advanced, we still recommend starting at the beginning, but you can skip to whatever area you wish.

How do I earn the free verified certifications?

For each certification, you need to build its 5 certification projects, and get all of the project tests to pass to be able to claim your certification.

Aside from the freeCodeCamp core curriculum, We have thousands of free, full-length books, courses, and programming tutorials. We almost certainly teach whatever programming tools you want to learn. Just use the search bar.

Happy coding!

Get started \(it's free\)

freeCodeCamp is a donor-supported tax-exempt 501(c)(3) charitable organization (United States Federal Tax Identification Number: 82-0779546).

Our mission: to help people learn to code for free. We accomplish this by creating thousands of videos, articles, and interactive coding lessons - all freely available to the public.

Donations to freeCodeCamp go toward our education initiatives, and help pay for servers, services, and staff.

The screenshot shows the Bitbucket web interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Bitbucket', 'Your work', 'Repositories', 'Projects', 'More', and a 'Create' button. Below the navigation is a search bar and user profile icons. The main area displays two sections: 'Pull requests to review' and 'Your pull requests'. The 'Pull requests to review' section lists three pull requests: 'Feat/reduced-ui: add toggle component to reduced UI pack' (status: IN REVIEW, 7 reviews, 1 build), 'Feat/FIL-3871 Media Filmstrip Component' (status: IN REVIEW, 34 reviews, 1 build), and 'Chore: fix build script' (status: IN REVIEW, 0 reviews, 0 builds). The 'Your pull requests' section shows one pull request: 'Feat/reduced-ui: add toggle component to reduced UI pack' (status: IN REVIEW, 4 reviews, 1 build). Below these sections is a 'Jira issues' board. It has a header with 'Issues', 'Status', and 'Assignee'. Underneath are five Jira issues: 'MAC-14 CLONE - June Daily' (status: IN REVIEW, assignee: ...), 'IGG-8 Afterburner revision II script' (status: IN PROGRESS, assignee: ...), 'HBB-7 Tips and Tricks Blog Series 2 of 3' (status: TO DO, assignee: ...), 'IGG-18 Customers reporting shopping cart purchasing issues' (status: TO DO, assignee: ...), and 'PMA-6 Afterburner revision III automation' (status: TO DO, assignee: ...). The entire interface is set against a background with large orange and green L-shaped blocks and white plus signs.

Security and compliance, at scale

The screenshot shows the Bitbucket interface. On the left, there's a sidebar with navigation links like Home, Dashboards, Pipelines, Pipelines (selected), Pipelines, Pipelines, and Pipelines. In the center, a pull request titled "STK-124 Implement color picker on product page" is shown. On the right, a modal window displays the CI pipeline status. The pipeline has three stages: Checks, Files, and Activity. The Checks stage shows "6 of 10 checks passed" with a warning icon. It lists three items: "2+ approvals" (warning), "Require Jira key in PR..." (info), and "Snyk security scan passed" (green checkmark). Below this, it says "These will run on merge:" and lists two rules: "No merge after 5pm" and "No merge on weekends". At the bottom of the modal, it says "3 of 3 builds passed" with a green checkmark and a "View logs" button.

Overview

`adm-zip` is a JavaScript implementation for zip data compression for NodeJS.

Affected versions of this package are vulnerable to Arbitrary File Write via Archive Extraction (Zip Slip).

Build security into your entire workflow

Continuously monitor and fix security vulnerabilities during development, code review or as part of your CI/CD pipeline with native security capabilities or partners like Snyk, Synopsys, Sonar and others.

The screenshot shows the Bitbucket Pipelines interface for a repository named 'stackless-frontend'. A specific pipeline run, '#334', is displayed. The pipeline configuration is shown on the left, and the build logs for 'npm run test' are on the right. The pipeline consists of five stages: 'Setup and install JS deps', 'Linking', 'Path checker', 'Check for duplicate dependencies', and 'Type checker'. The 'Linking' stage is currently running.

At the top, there are navigation links for Bitbucket, Your work, Repositories, Projects, Pull requests, and Create. On the right, there are search, filter, and settings icons.

The screenshot shows the Bitbucket product management interface. On the left, there's a sidebar with links like 'Products', 'User access settings', 'Product URLs', 'RELEASE MANAGEMENT', 'Product updates', 'Release tracks', and 'Sandbox'. The main area has a header 'Admin / administration / Products' and a title 'Bitbucket'. It displays 'Licensing count: 30'. Below this is a table titled 'Groups' with columns 'Group', 'Members', 'Default group', and 'Product roles'. The table lists several groups: 'Android devs' (16 members, User role), 'Designers' (3 members, User role), 'Dev managers' (5 members, User access admin role), 'Developers' (9 members, User role), 'Platform devs' (9 members, User access admin role), 'Tech leads' (10 members, User access admin role), 'bitbucket-admins-cmng-20240503' (2 members, Product admin role), 'bitbucket-users-cmng-20240503' (1 member, User role), 'iOS devs' (4 members, User role), and 'stash-users' (23 members, User role). There are also two rows for 'bitbucket-admins-cmng-20240503' and 'bitbucket-users-cmng-20240503' which appear to be system-generated or placeholder entries.

Fast Rollback

Deploy confidently knowing you can instantly rollback your code or Postgres data to an earlier state.

App Metrics

Heroku Metrics gives you powerful insights on the runtime characteristics of your applications.

Continuous Delivery

Heroku Flow \(/flow/\) streamlines the app release experience by making continuous delivery easy, visual, and efficient.

GitHub Integration

Every pull request can spin up a disposable Review App for testing, and manually or automatically deploy a particular branch on every GitHub push.

Extensibility

Customize your stack with a Heroku innovation: Buildpacks. Build your own, or choose one from the hundreds built by the community.

Security and Compliance

At re:Invent 2024, we launched new products, capabilities, and features that make it easier for you to adopt generative AI at scale.

Introducing Amazon Nova

Amazon Nova is a new generation of foundation models (FMs) with frontier intelligence and industry-leading price performance:

- Amazon Nova Micro, a text-only model that delivers the lowest latency responses at very low costs
- Amazon Nova Lite, a very low-cost multimodal model that quickly processes image, video, and text inputs
- Amazon Nova Pro, a highly capable multimodal model with the best combination of accuracy, speed, and cost
- Amazon Nova Canvas, a state-of-the-art image generation model
- Amazon Nova Reel, a state-of-the-art video generation model

This image was generated using Amazon Nova Canvas with the prompt "a portrait of a happy corgi dog".

TRY GROK

Through comprehensive document analysis, our platform identified 1,245 financial reports submitted in Q3 2024.

The data revealed a 17% increase in operational costs year-over-year, primarily driven by supply chain disruptions and labor shortages.

Revenue growth, however, remained steady at 9%, with 62% of companies exceeding their projected earnings. Sector-specific insights show technology and healthcare outperformed other industries, contributing 15% and 19% to total revenue, respectively.

The Future of Recruitment: AI is Leading the Way to Bias-Free Hiring

The future of recruitment is undergoing a transformative shift, with artificial intelligence (AI) at the heart of this revolutionary change. As organizations seek to streamline their hiring processes and identify top talent in a competitive landscape, AI is emerging as the driving force behind these advancements. Let's explore how AI is revolutionizing recruitment, from extracting, assessing, and curating new employees. In addition to AI's impact on the recruitment process, it's essential to consider its potential economic implications.

By utilizing AI for recruitment, companies can optimize their workflows, leading to increased productivity and efficiency. This, in turn, can positively influence the overall economic output and competitiveness of businesses in the market. Furthermore, the use of AI in recruitment can also lead to cost savings for organizations. By automating repetitive tasks and identifying the most suitable candidates, companies can reduce their hiring costs and allocate resources more effectively. This shift in recruitment practices can contribute to improved financial performance for businesses, ultimately impacting the broader economic landscape by promoting sustainable growth and resource optimization.

This blog post will delve into the profound impact of AI on recruitment, exploring the innovative technologies and approaches that are reshaping the hiring landscape. From automated candidate screening and personalized job matching to predictive analytics for identifying high-potential candidates, AI is paving the way for a more efficient and data-driven approach to talent acquisition. Let's embark on this insightful journey as we explore the intersection of technology and human capital, and the crucial role that AI is playing in shaping the future of recruitment. The future of recruitment is undoubtedly intertwined with the advancement of AI. Embracing these technologies will empower organizations to stay ahead. By integrating AI strategically into their workforce with their business strategy, companies can utilize it not only to revolutionize the recruitment process, but also to enhance it as a powerful driver in shaping the future of recruitment, talent management.

As it streamlines the recruitment process, AI will also contribute to more efficiently identifying top talent and reducing the time to hire applicants. This ultimately leads to a more proactive and dynamic recruitment, ensuring a more efficient output of businesses. Furthermore, the integration of AI has the potential to introduce unconscious biases, thus promoting diversity in organizations. By leveraging data-driven insights, companies can reduce bias in recruitment that respects the diverse perspectives and talents in every globalized economy. This inclusive approach not only advances the overall economic productivity but also fosters a more equitable and sustainable labor market for the future.

A Brief Guide to Responding to Student Writing

Principles of Responding to Student Writing

Your comments on student writing should clearly reflect the hierarchy of your concerns about the paper. Major issues should be treated more prominently and at greater length, while minor issues should be addressed briefly or perhaps not at all. If you comment extensively on grammatical or mechanical issues, students may infer that these are among your primary concerns. It is not unreasonable for students to assume that the amount of attention you give to an issue correlates with its importance.

It is often most helpful to provide explicit, substantive, and detailed feedback on two or three significant matters rather than offering superficial comments on many issues. Many experienced readers find that responding to student writing involves constantly deciding not to address less important issues. Such restraint allows you to concentrate your efforts on a few crucial points and tends to produce a clearer and more understandable message for students.

Many veteran readers find the experience of responding to student writing to be one of constantly deciding not to comment on less important issues. Such restraint allows you to focus your energies on a few important points and tends to yield a clearer and more understandable message for students.
